Pajama Day Dress Code:

We hope that pajama day brings some warmth and smiles to our school, as our students earned this reward during the Feed the Need fundraiser. Part of having fun with this reward is that everyone cooperates by following the guidelines below. Even though we are wearing pajamas, we are not at home.

The Train Station is aware that we are coming in our pajamas and they are all aboard! Let's make sure we conduct ourselves well in our behavior and in our attire.

Code:

- ❖ All pajamas must be in good taste.
- ❖ All pajamas must be in good condition (no holes, tears, or frays).
- ❖ Socks and athletic shoes are required.
- ❖ All bottoms must be long. No shorts.
- ❖ Tops must have sleeves; you may not wear a tank-top style top.
- ❖ Pajamas must be made of thick material so that they are not see-through. Garments can be layered to alleviate this issue. We will be outside and on a train, so dress for warmth.
- ❖ No "back flap" PJs.
- ❖ There may NOT be any writing on the rear-end of the pants.
- ❖ Appropriate words down the leg are okay - (school or sports team or brand names are okay).
- ❖ Logos and any sayings on the pajamas must be appropriate.
- ❖ All pajamas must be loose fitting.
- ❖ No leggings. (unless under other pajama pants)
- ❖ No yoga pants. (unless under other pajama pants)
- ❖ You do not have to wear pajamas. In lieu of pajamas, you may wear:
 - BCA uniform dress code
 - BCA spirit wear dress code
 - An appropriate Christmas shirt
 - Loose sweatpants
 - Loose athletic pants
 - All rules above pertain to sweatpants and athletic pants
- ❖ BCA reserves the right to require a change of clothes, as every questionable situation can't always be prevented.
